

PRIZE WINNER!—THIS GOWN WILL SET THE FASHION FOR EASTER SEASON

Dame Fashion has awarded the apple of style and beauty—and here is the gown and here's the girl that won the elusive lady's favor.

The gown was designed by Miss Janet Burns of Duluth, Minn., and worn in the Fashion Art League's parade in Chicago by Miss Marie Kraus. It captured first prize, a silver statuette of "Elusive Fashion."

The "Mayflower" gown is built of striped faille with round, full skirt box pleated in front and made on a deep yoke. The bodice is made all in one and close fitting. The front pieces are brought back and crossed at the waist line and tied in a double butterfly bow. The bow is lined with pale yellow that harmonizes with the stripes in the silk.

Take a Good Look at This Gown—It is in the Style Fashion Has Decried For Early Spring Wear

A SCRAP OF PAPER

"Marriage is said to be a contract."

"Yes; and it is about the only contract wherein both parties can set up strong claims to getting the worst of it."—Kansas City Journal.

The neck and sleeves are made of hand-tucked net, and graduated bands of black velvet trim the skirt.

The No Gat is leading the Piute Indians in Utah. If they see no gat what is the posse afraid of?